A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a waste of time to treat a liver in this way. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress "small of back," gnawing or distressing hunger in stomach, perhaps nausea, "sick" or "rising" in throat after eating, and know the symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to it as long as you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is a non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advertised. Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

TROLLEY CAR DYNAMITED.

A trolley car was dynamited last night in Germantown, Philadelphia. The explosion lifted the car from the track and set it down crossways with a crash that smashed every window pane and hurled twenty passengers against the seats and sides of the car. The concussion broke the window glass in dozens of houses along the avenue, and produced a panic feeling in the neighborhood that lasted for hours. It was remarkable that none of the people in the car was seriously hurt.

Apparently a dynamite cartridge with a percussion cap had been fixed to a rail. A wheel of the car rolled over the cap and the charge let go throwing, up the front end of the car. The roar of the explosion was heard a mile away. The motorman was thrown back against the car front so hard that the back of his head was bruised and he was stunned for a moment.

For days the strike leaders have been planning for a monster outdoor demonstration in aid of the sympathetic walk-out.

Late yesterday, in pursuance of this idea, they announced that today a giant mass-meeting would be held in the Philadelphia Baseball Park, at Broad and Huntington streets.

When Director of Public Safety Clay heard of this he took prompt action. Announcement was made from the City Hall that the proposed outdoor gathering would not be permitted.

Director Clay later told counsel for the strikers that no permit would be issued for the meeting.

The committee of ten declared last night that it proposed to disregard Director Clay's prohibition of the proposed meeting in the baseball park, and would hold it today, as announced. Strike leaders Platt, Murphy, Mahon and others are scheduled to speak.

NIGHT RIDERS IN VIRGINIA.

Warnings by unknown persons, who designate themselves as night riders, threatening deeds of violence to the farmers who refuse to co-operate with the Farmers Association of Virginia and North Carolina in their efforts to pool the tobacco crop and secure higher prices, continue to be posted in the Danville, section.

The night rider warnings have passed that stage where they have been regarded by many as being a joke perpetrated by mischievous irresponsible persons. So far as can be gathered practically all of the notices posted in that section have been written on a typewriter, and the whole scheme was evidently conspired by the same party or parties.

The notices are generally tacked up at night, and fresh horse tracks can be seen around the barns on the morning after. The notices are headed "A Fair Warning," and an extract reads: "The time has come when moral persuasion ceases to be a virtue. Therefore, if you do not pool your tobacco and stand by these poor fellows, who have so gallantly held up the cause, who will just have to suffer the consequences."

"SCHOOL" OF TURTLES.
The steamship Brazos, yesterday arrived at Galveston from New York, Capt. Evans, reported having encountered a school of hundreds of immense turtles, many of them weighing about 1,000 pounds, off the coast of Florida in the Atlantic. The turtles dove their shells almost through the hull in many places as the vessel attempted to go through the school. Many of the shelled giants were impaled on the bow of the vessel and had to be removed by letting men down the sides of the ship with handspikes. The Brazos had to shut down power and change her course in an effort to get out of the sea of turtles, and the bottom of the vessel suffered considerable damage.

APPROPRIATION BILL.

The latest appropriations bill offered in the legislature in many years was that which came to the House of Delegates on Tuesday. Its chief points of interest are: J. M. Bauserman, commissioner of state hospitals, salary reduced from $2,000 to $1,000; appropriation for the maintenance of the office of secretary of war records, held by Major B. W. Hunter, not mentioned; salaries of the clerks of the Supreme Court of Appeals eliminated and they will receive compensation in fees only until 1912. The deficit in the state treasury is said to be $200,000, and this carried weight with the finance committee. The only items for which the legislature will appropriate money are those considered absolutely necessary. State institutions are all provided for, but there is so little increase for their maintenance that it is hardly worth mentioning. The increase all arose out of conditions that made improvements imperative. The state schools receive their usual appropriations and suffer little under the bill. The V. P. I. receives besides its usual appropriation $5,000 for agricultural experiment work, and $6,000 for the School of Mines. While few luxuries are allowed under the provisions of this appropriations measure it is conceded that every institution in the state will be able to get along comfortably until another legislature and more prosperous times allow greater concessions.

Following are the larger items contained in the bill:

- Criminal expenses, $410,000.
- Public printing, $85,000.
- Assessment of lands, $8,000.
- Members of board of fisheries, $400 each.
- Commissioners of revenue, examiners of record and express charges on land books $123,000.
- Eastern State Hospital, $105,000.
- Western State Hospital, $125,000.
- Southwestern State Hospital, $79,000.
- Central State Hospital, $135,000.
- State Epileptic Colony, $30,000.
- Virginia School for Colored Deaf and Blind, $20,000.
- Medical College of Virginia, $5,000.
- State Female Normal School, $50,000.
- State Normal School, Harrisonburg, $55,000.
- St. Normal School, Fredericksburg, $50,000.
- University of Virginia, $30,000.
- Virginia Military Institute, $40,000.
- Virginia School for Deaf and Blind, $50,000.
- Virginia Polytechnic Institute, $66,750.
- Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute, $20,000.
- William and Mary College, $40,000.
- Public schools, about $1,600,000.
- Teachers' pension fund, $5,000.
- Confederate Soldiers' Home, $46,000.
- Interest on public debt $816,000.
- Sinking fund, $125,000.
- Military fund, $55,000.
- Convict road force, $65,000.
- State aid to public roads, $150,000.
- Military records, $5,000.
- Home for Wayward Girls, $12,000.
- Pensions, $450,000.

ARMY MANEUVERS.

Roanoke and Salem, Va., will probably be the center of the camp and maneuvers of 12,000 soldiers of the regular army and the National Guard. Capt. B. H. Wells, quartermaster sergeant of the United States army, with headquarters at Governors Island, has arrived at Roanoke, and with Lieutenant Bracken, of the Roanoke recruiting office, went over a large portion of the country between Roanoke and Salem yesterday. After surveying the land, the army representative planned locations for two camps, one between Roanoke and Salem and one west of Salem.

It was stated that to carry out the plans it would be necessary to gain the consent of owners of land within a radius of about 30 miles for the maneuvers of the army. There will be between 12,000 and 15,000 United States soldiers and National Guardsmen from Virginia, Maryland, District of Columbia and Pennsylvania. The camp will be established for six weeks, beginning the middle of July.
